SUBJECT: Team Registration Fee Clarification

USADB Board has heard some concerns about the changes we have made in players and team fees. This has been an ongoing issue for the last few years. Recently, the USADB Board and 7 of the 8 Regional Officers had a retreat to address this issue. At this retreat, we replaced the $20 player fee with a flat $100 team fee.

What this means is that if we still had the $20 player fee, a team could pay between $80 to $160. It was decided that $100 team flat fee would be better and easier for all of us. So, the team registration form does not show $20 player fee. USADB Board overlooked and left off the $100 team fee. Teams are still required to pay $100 team registration fee.

Your regional officers received information in the packet that included the team registration form with the missing $100 fee. A v-log explaining the new team registration fee in ASL was created and is posted on our website. We advise all teams to follow the instructions. If there are any other questions or need further clarification, please contact your region officers.

Thank you for being a part of USADB and we look forward to seeing you in Houston, Texas.
