#1- Talked about the top 8 seeds and went over the winners of 7 regional tournaments. EAAD is the only regional tournament that has not played yet. They projected that New Jersey will win.

We proposed on the top 8 seeds for the St Louis's tournament:

- #1-Dynamingle (WDB Champs):
- #2-Indiana (CAAD Champs):
- #3-North Carolina (SEAAD Champs)
- #4-New Jersey (If they will win the EAAD tournament)
- #5-Bridgeport (NEAAD Champs)
- #6-Austin (SWBAD Champs)
- #7-Utah (NWADB Champs)
- #8-Kansas City (MAAD Champs)

#2- We talked about the runners up of each regional tournaments, Riverside got 3rd place of WDB's tournament and expressed interests to go to USADB's tournament. NWADB reported that BACD, 2nd place team declined to go. The 3rd place, 4th place teams of NWADB declined and the 5th place team expressed interests.

SWBAD reported the 2nd place team declined to go, too but Dallas, the 3rd place team expressed interests.

BPAC want the runner up teams to be competitive and strong teams so they asked NWADB to wait and see who will go next week, etc. They want the 3rd place team or better for the runner up teams.

#3-We will select the #9-#16 seeds next week and to confirm the whole 16 seeds next week.
